

I Am the Very Model of a Modern UU Minister

I am the very model of a modern UU minister,
Despite what Jerry Falwell says, I'm nothing very sinister.
I give a high priority to all things congregational;
I say with all due modesty, my sermons are sensational!

I offer a philosophy that isn't very orthodox;
You'll feel most comfortably just like a pair of little woolly socks.
I must confess the truth: it is my very earnest hope, you see,
That I will get a pay hike if you swallow my hyperbole...

Chorus:

She must confess the truth: it is her very earnest hope, you see, that she will get a pay hike if we swallow her hyperbole!

It's true I'm the epitome of all that's good and clerical;
My colleagues are so jealous, their reaction is hysterical.
I have a reputation as a woman who's fastidious;
I'll clean the walls and floors and halls; some say that it's insidious...

To keep my health and clear my mind, I hang around with folks a lot;
But best of all, at sermon time, I also can make jokes a lot.
I'll shamelessly recount to you the virtues of your reverend...
I'll wrap it up because I'll bet you thought this song would never end.

Chorus:

She shamelessly recounts to us the virtues of our reverend.
She'll wrap it up because she bets we thought this song would never end!
